Questions?: Contact Joanne Fletcher : 541-682-6551 or Joanne.Fletcher@co.lane.or.us

This training is structured for direct care workers, including residential and vocational and family members. Participants will be encouraged to attend in teams along with the identified job seeker as the focus person. Each team should be composed of the job seeker as well as at least 3 other people who know the person and who represent a component of that person's support system (family, residential, vocational, etc ...)

The training will be conducted in two consecutive sessions.

April 20, 2010

The first session will focus on person centered planning as a assessment tool:

- ⇒ to identify the strengths and skills of the job seeker;
- ⇒ ascertain job match,
- ⇒ chart possible support needs and outline a job development strategy

April 27, 2010

The second session will focus on:

- ⇒ implementation of the job development strategy;
- ⇒ identifying funding partners and leveraging resources;
- ⇒ the effective approach of possible employers

Debra McLean has over 20 years of experience assisting people with disabilities to access paid employment. She has provided training and consultation on person centered planning and accessing customized employment to individuals, families, school districts and agencies, working with people with disabilities.
