

Better Together Grants

Application

Better Together Grants are available to help you involve your community in something you care about. You can apply for a grant of up to $500 if you have an idea, and can show us that:

- At least one person involved in the planning or doing experiences disability.
- At least four unrelated people are willing to volunteer their time, talents and energy to your project.

Date: _____

1. What is the purpose or goal of your project?
2. Provide a brief description of what you want to happen.
3. List the names of four people who will be directly involved in the planning and doing.
4. How will you involve people with disabilities?

5. How will you involve other members of your community?

6. When will your activity begin and end?

7. How much money are you asking for ($100-$500)? _____

8. How will you spend the money? (funds cannot be used to pay people for their time)

9. How will your project continue after the grant is spent?
